CEO

Welcome Message

With the continuous emerging trends and fast paced environment, being on top of the game is key. AI as the new norm, employers and employees wonder to evolve and rediscover themselves. Solers Management Institute is quite prepared for this and as for the year 2026; we present a complete whole tailored 360 suite of trainings.

At Solers Management Institute, we understand that digitalization has indeed transformed not only technologies but also the principles of business strategy, the processes of business operations, and organizations at large. The corporate marketplace is quickly changing, and businesses must be flexible and easily adapt to change.

We want to thank our unwavering customers from across Africa and Asia that have found Solers Management Institute a true definition for their staff trainings. Our 2026 programs are developed with consideration of client voices and provide feedback to the deep cutting organization issues but above it all help bridge the gap between Performance and Return on Investment.

Solers' programs are universally affordable and are based on competencies that will provide the skills employers are looking for now and in the future. Tap into our flexible learning environment that puts your needs first. Learn from where you want, when you want and fit learning around your work schedule.

Thank you and Best wishes as you join us at any of our centers across Africa and beyond.

ENVIRONMENT, SOCIAL AND GOVERNANCE

ESG gives a guideline for both corporate management and investing (an investment strategy known as ESG investing). ESG programs are often seen as detrimental to a firm's financial performance but when coupled with these firms' inadequate transparency and lack of individualized analysis, there is growing evidence that the proxy advisory firms are biasing votes toward supporting value reducing ESG proposals.
